Will of Michael Gillespie born 1793 in Scotland-in his will he leaves all of his estate to his "loving cousin Christian Russell" and the executor of his estate was her brother and his cousin James Russell

Will of
Michael Gillespie

In the name of God Amen, I Michael Gillespie of the Township of Barbondale, County of Luzerne and State of Pennsylvania, being weak in body but of sound mind, memory and understanding (blessed be God) knowing the mortality of all flesh and that it is appointed for all men to die, do hereby make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in the following manner that is to say I give and bequeath unto Christian Russell daughter of the deceased John Russell who died in the Township of Clifford the said Christian Russell now residing in Barbondale Township all my moveable and immoveable property of whatsoever kind I possess together with all my debts due to me of whatsoever kind and nature, I hereby bequeath unto my said loving cousin Christian Russell. And I do hereby appoint my cousin James Russell as my only Executor to see this my last will and testament duly Executed according to my true intent and meaning.

In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this fifteenth day of September in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and forty three.

Michael Gillespie ---

We the (subscribers) undersigned in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses to this his last will and testament, 15th September A.D. 1843.

Enos Pedrick, Robt McFarlane and Lindsay.

Suzerne County, S.S:

Be it remembered that on the sixteenth day of October Anno Domini 1843, before me Chas^t H. Potter Register for the probate of Wills and granting letters of Administration in and for the County of Suzerne, personally came Robert McFarlane and Andrew Lindsay two of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing Will and being duly sworn did depose and say that they were present and saw and heard Michael Gillespie the testator to the said Will sign, publish, pronounce and declare the said foregoing instrument as and for his testament and last Will and that at the time of so doing he was of perfect and sound mind, memory and understanding to the best of their knowledge, observation and belief.

Charles H. Potter Register.

In conformity to the foregoing Will and the probate thereof Letters testamentary were this day granted to James Russel Executor &c. therein named, he having first been sworn to well and truly Administer the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of the said testator, and make a true and perfect Inventory and just and concionable appraisement and exhibit the same in the Registers Office of Suzerne County within one month from this date, and render a true account reconing and calculation of his said Administration within one year from the date hereof, or when thereunto legally required, according to law.

Registered October 16. 1843.

Chas^t H. Potter, Regt.
